

Clive Anthony Churchill
1953- 2001

Our Hero

*As we ponder the love that we saw in his eyes,
A Godly love, given without compromise...
We recall many a time that he stood by our side,
And prodded us on with great vigor and pride.*

*His voice ever confident, firm and yet fair,
Always speaking with patience,
The power and might of his hands was so sure,
We new there was nothing we couldn't endure.*

*It's true; a few others provided insight,
Yet he led the foundation that kept us upright;
He was the grandest of men to have lived on this earth,
Although he was not royal by stature or birth.*

*He was a man of great dignity, honour and strength.
His merits were noble, and of admirable length.
He's far greater than any other man that we know,
He was husband, father, our mentor, friend and hero.*

~ Debbie Hinton Young ~

Clive died of Carcinoid Tumor of the Pancreas on the 7th July, 2001 at the age of 48.